PASTOR'S THOUGHTS

A Central Focus for 2018

It is natural to think about the New Year as a new beginning for a number of things. It may be time to finally take the next step for a new you with a fresh start physically, mentally, or spiritually. Maybe this will be the year when you truly take a step to become who God has called you to be in many ways. That does not mean it will be easy but it could be one step forward and one step deeper in your relationship with God. This would truly be a great and wonderful year if we all could make progress in any way.

If you could gain God's insight and confidence in you then you will grow spiritually and be a wonderful ambassador for the Kingdom of God. Read and meditate on these words from the book of Isaiah as you begin this deeper journey.

*Here is my servant,
whom I uphold,
my chosen one in whom
I delight;
I will put my Spirit
on him,
and he will bring justice
to the nations.*

Isaiah 42:1 (NIV)

How far could each person go if they believed God has placed God's Spirit on them for the work of bringing salvation and justice to all nations? Then how far could we go as ministers and ambassadors to Wytheville and Wythe County if we believe God's Spirit is living in us and through us? As Pastor, I believe there is so much more we can do to live into the calling God has for us as a church!

Our hope is not in the new year...

but in the One that makes all things new.

As we begin this New Year, there is a need for people to step up and move forward on the spiritual journey. As a Church, we have done a number of things this past year to simplify and streamline how we do ministry. Yet there is much left to be done. Now is the time for a step forward as a Church family. Will you join in and help to make 2019 an incredible year for Wytheville Baptist. Not only is God counting on you, but as your pastor, I am counting on you being a dynamic part of a powerful Wytheville Baptist in this New Year.

Because of God's Love,
Pastor Tim

our November support got thru. As more of their church members leave the country others are being saved and joining the fellowship. It is amazing to see that even in the worst of times God continues to grow His church. In December the Leadership Team voted to send an extra $200 to pastor Ramon as a Christmas gift for his families personal use. Please continue praying for his ministry.

NOTES FROM OUR MINISTER OF MUSIC AND WORSHIP

NEW YEAR—NEW TIMES—NEW FOCUS—NEW LIFE

First of all, I would like to thank everyone who participated in I Hear the Prophet Callin'. All worked hard and it came together the week before the "big snow." I thank the good Lord and the choir for this as we missed quite a few—what seemed to be—crucial rehearsals. But all was in the Lord's Hands, and we pray He was glorified and souls were touched.

The New Year brings great hope and promise of new life serving our faithful Lord whose mercies are new every morning. In 2019 the choir will experience new times, a new focus, but always the same goal of leading others to new life in Jesus and a closer walk with Christ.

The choir will highlight songs from our hymnal this spring, along with choral anthems. We will strive to sing as much as possible in our services while shortening our choir rehearsals to make it easier for members to participate.

Beginning January 6th, the choir will meet on Sundays for rehearsals from 5:00 to 6:00 p.m. Prior to choir practice, there will be a prayer and fellowship time from 4:45 – 5:00 p.m. This will allow us to bring each other up to date on our life's happenings during the week, as well as present any concerns and prayer requests we might have.

On Easter Sunday, Wytheville Baptist Church will host the Easter Sunrise Service for the three congregations on Church Street. Our choir will be working on a special anthem for this service that we hope will lift all to the joy of this holy celebration of our Lord's resurrection.

The beginning of the year with a new schedule is a perfect time to join the choir. We welcome you to visit our rehearsals without making a commitment: enjoy getting to know our members first and see what music we will be working on during the spring. You do not need to read music and I am available to help you individually on your vocal part, at your convenience. So what do you have to lose? We do hope you will join us in the sanctuary this Sunday, January 6th, at 4:45 p.m. to visit with our faithful members before singing together for the glory of God.

May your New Year be filled with a beautiful new walk with the Lord that brings new life to everyone you meet.

In this blessed hope,

Judy

Youth News

Hello Church Family,

We can't believe 2018 has already come and gone. The youth program has been searching for ways to adapt. What has worked in the past has proved to be more difficult to preserve and implement in the present and the youth have been active in searching and brainstorming for ways to tailor Christianity to the next generations without compromising Biblical truth. This past month the youth have been part of some canvassing and volunteer opportunities. The Canvassing activity meaning, the good old tried and true visiting of neighbors, going door to door, and handing out flyers. The volunteer opportunities include time assisting the Open-Door Café and the after-school backpack program helping kids. As far as study goes, the youth have been active in the book of Joshua, improving their critical thinking skills and learning valuable facets from within the Old Testament that will clarify and provide contextual information when the New Testament is brought into view. For 2019, the youth will be invited to participate in a retreat at Claytor Lake, a youth camp during the summer months, and other volunteer opportunities as they arise. In addition, after the book of Joshua has been completed a Gospel will be selected as they study the God-man, Jesus Christ."

HOOKS AND NEEDLES

Hooks and Needles group made scarfs for the Red Cross Service to the Armed Forces and these scarfs will be given to our Service Men and Women around the world. Those who crochet scarfs are Dolores Dove, Becky Hudson, Sherry Terry, and Doris Terry. Those who knitted scarfs are Betty Matheny. Those who donated yarn are Tommy and Bonnie Terry, C.A. and Sherry Terry, Dickie and Debby Terry, Doris Terry, Rhonda Bracknell, Becky Hudson, Delores Dove, and Betty Matheny. Becky Hudson delivered a total of 74 scarfs to the Red Cross in Tennessee on Friday, December 14. We will continue to work on this project during the winter months. Thanks to everyone who helped make this project a success. If you would like to join the group and help make scarfs, please see Doris.

Senior Adults Young-at-Heart

Out of respect for the family of a beloved church member, we chose to cancel our Young-at-Heart Christmas party, but we can do on January 15 what we had planned for December. We'll call it an Ol' Fashioned Gospel Sing. We'll have Jerry Stone back to lead us in singing all our old favorite gospel songs. Sounds good to me, how about you? Just remember to bring finger foods to share and a $1.00 gift to exchange. Bring a friend and encourage more of our own over 50 WBC folks to join us. Be in the Fellowship Hall at noon on Tuesday, January 15.

Hope to see you there!

Children's Clothes Closet

It's very cold outside and there are warm clothes available in our WBC Children's Clothes Closet. These children's clothes are free and we always have new families that utilize this ministry. If you have any new or gently used children's clothes, shoes, new underwear, t-shirts, or socks; bring them to the clothes closet down stairs next to the nursery.

If you would like to make a monetary donation, please earmark your check "Children's Clothes Closet" and place it in the offering plate. The Children's Clothes Closet will open on Thursday, January 24, 2018, from 2:30 to 4:00 p.m.

Spread the Word of God by telling others to listen to the Sunday morning message by logging onto:

www.wythevillebaptist.org
then click the Sermons tab.

Once there, people will find each Sunday's sermon plus all the previous sermons of past months. Thank you to our Multi-Media Team Leader, Daniel Burke, for providing this link for our encouragement, learning, and inspiration.

FEBRUARY 2019 BEACON ARTICLES

TITHING ENVELOPES

Our Offering Envelopes for 2019 will be ready for pick-up the latter part of January. The boxes of envelopes will be placed on the table in the main hallway under the Library windows. The boxes will be in numerical order and an alphabetical list of names will be provided with assigned envelope numbers. Please note your box number may have changed from last year. If you cannot find your box or do not have an assigned tithing number and would like one, please contact the church office at 228-3712.

PRAYER LIST

Our prayer list published in our bulletins and Beacons has become very long. Some on our prayer list have inadvertently been left on the list after our prayers for them have been answered. Therefore, we will purge the list and start fresh. We ask you to carefully look over the list of names and if there is someone you would like left on the prayer list, please call the church office. All other names will be removed from the list the last of January and a new list will be published in our February Beacon and again in our bulletins.

We thank everyone who sacrificially stood in the gap for others.

"No, dear brothers and sisters, I am still not all I should be, but I am focusing all my energies on this one thing: Forgetting the past and looking forward to what lies ahead, I strain to reach the end of the race and receive the prize for which God, through Christ Jesus, is calling us up to heaven." Philippians 3:13-14

The Sanctuary Choir presented the Cantata
"I Hear the Prophet Callin'"

during worship service on December 16, 2018.

They sang with power and beauty as the Holy Spirit led and our Minister of Music and Worship, Judy Collier, directed.

The sanctuary was beautifully decorated and the Glory of the Lord shown on the faces of the congregation.

January 2019

A Perilous Proposal by Michael Phillips is a story about a young black man in the south shortly after the war between the states, Jake strikes out on his own hoping to outrun his master and the consequence of an angry deed.

Carrying a grudge and his guilty secret, Jake heads North on a quest to find freedom and the father he has long resented. On the way, he discovers not only his long-lost papa but two intriguing young women as well; one of them a former slave like himself. Jake soon falls in love with a girl who has secrets of her own. But before she can answer his proposal, danger comes calling—will Jake learn to forgive his father and himself only to lose his true love, and possibly his life?

Another Michael Phillips novel is On The Trail Of The Truth. Since coming to California, Corrie Belle Hollister has been marked by change and growth. And now with a new mother to care for her brothers and sisters, Corrie is free to consider the future. She longs to be a journalist, to serve God with her writing, to become a woman of the truth.

But the truth can be elusive, especially as it leads her into what has always been a man's world. In her quest to become a newspaper reporter, Corrie finds herself in the rough and tumble towns of the gold fields—alone. The closer she gets to the truth, the more severe the opposition. Corrie discovers a conspiracy of deception that means danger not only to herself but to her family.
