PASTOR'S THOUGHTS

Experience Leads to Transformation

Being a Christian is much more than being in church on Sundays and Wednesdays. Being a Christian is much more than being involved in additional activities at church. Being a Christian is much more than being a dynamic part of a team or in a leadership position at church. Yes, when you are a Christian all of these things should be part of the journey yet there is something much more important.

The most important part of being Christian is experiencing God in a personal transformative relationship. When you come to a place where you can place yourself in the presence of God, allowing God to speak into your heart and soul, then you have found the most important part of the spiritual journey. This type of relationship with God should be the goal of every Christian. When we allow God this kind of access to the deepest parts of us, then God transforms us into the image of Christ.

Many say they follow God, yet their greatest concern is to gain knowledge about God. While knowledge about God is wonderful; the actual experience of hearing God speak about the areas of your life in which you need to grow is transformative. When you allow this transformation to happen by the work of the Holy Spirit, a much deeper level of commitment exists to the Kingdom of God. You will also develop a passion for making the Kingdom of God your number one priority. Along with this comes an ability to see the world, especially those without Christ, from God's viewpoint. When we see the people of the world this way, we seek to help them develop a relationship with Christ.

Many people would love to see our country place God and God's Kingdom first. Some seek to do this by getting laws passed that only allow God's perspective and the morality of the Bible to exist. Yet it is only when people are transformed from the inside first by God that they will live as God asks. So the transformation of this country happens when I allow God to transform me first!

Do you experience the transforming power of God through interaction with the Holy Spirit? Do you hear God asking you to step in new directions helping others to experience God? This is what it really means to be a Christian.

Because of God's Love,
Pastor Tim

The men's and women's bathrooms now have new windows. The camp's board of directors are now working on the north wall studding the gable area in preparation for installation of Hardie board shingles.
- THANK YOU to all the churches who cleaned the Baptist Camp this season. You did a great job. ## NOTES FROM OUR MINISTER OF MUSIC AND WORSHIP

THANKSGIVING – IN JOY AND IN SORROW

In my last article, I wrote of God's singing over us with deep, passionate Love; and I must say, that as I reflect on Thanksgiving and all we have to be grateful for, I see God's perfect and joyous Love for us at the foundation of all other good gifts. For in His great Love He sent His Son Jesus to die for us, giving us the opportunity to receive His Love, salvation, growth in holiness, and a high calling to fulfill.

One of the perfect gifts He gives us when we receive forgiveness and new life through Jesus, is freedom from sin's hold and our old life. In the United States, we've also been given a precious gift of freedom to openly worship Him. November 10th we will celebrate Veteran's Day with a special opportunity to thank the Lord and our armed service personnel for their sacrificial gift. Jan Stone will again publish the beautiful brochure of our church members and their immediate family who are veterans or now actively serving to protect our nation. If you have any additions or corrections to the brochure, please submit them to Jan or leave them in the church office before Monday, November 4th.

Two weeks later, on November 24th, we will celebrate all our gifts from God as we prepare for our national day of Thanksgiving. Thanksgiving to most people holds memories of happy, family times with an abundance of good food. This Sunday, our church body will celebrate God's great gifts and life in Him. How might our church celebrate differently from our family day of Thanksgiving?

In response to this question, I would like to make a special request. So many in our congregation have had, and are continuing to have severe personal trials. They are our precious family in Christ and we need, as a body, to lift them up during this holiday season—which can be especially painful in a time of suffering. The Word says that we are to

“in ALL THINGS give thanks”
(1 Thessalonians 5:18-23).

And this we can do, because we are promised

“that ALL THINGS work together for good to them that love God, to them who are called according to his purpose” (Romans 8:28).

I truly believe that as we pray and support our brothers and sisters in Christ, their painful praise and worship can be the most precious in the Lord’s sight. And as we are able to also thank God for our own trials and pain, I believe our loving God will work mightily through our obedience. So I ask on this special celebration of Thanksgiving, that we corporately thank the Lord for the tough times as well as the obvious blessings, and pray for strength and comfort for each other. I believe in this, we can truly bless and thank our Lord who has given us so much.

Judy

Hello Church Family,

This past month we have seen a lot occur. The kids are deep into the semester and winter sports are about to begin. We are three chapters away from completing our lengthy study of Revelation and plan to study Genesis once it is concluded. We have also had the pleasure of having two repeating guests who will hopefully make our church home their church home; more on this later. Our plans for this month include a pumpkin carving night, helping with the Fall Festival and assisting with Trunk-or-Treat. We also have some big plans that will hopefully provide opportunities for unchurched families to worship with us. We have been neck deep in ideas and hope God will take the seeds of our thoughts and grow them into full-fledged trees. We hope this message finds you well!

Louis and I enjoyed going to your church Sunday, October 13, 2019. Bonnie at the Welcome Visitor Center told us about it. Several of the members came to us and said hello which was so nice and welcoming. Teresa invited us to the pot luck which we enjoyed. Please let your congregation know we both appreciated their kindness.

Shoebox Ministry

IT'S TIME FOR SHOEBOXES!!

It's time for my yearly plea to all of you for help in a very important mission project—Operation Christmas Child.

Wytheville Baptist Church will once again be a Relay Center. We will have hours of operation each day between November 18-25 and we need your help. There will be a sign-up sheet in the back of the sanctuary for those who would like to volunteer.

We would like to have our church surpass our collection amount from last year and I am challenging our membership to pack 155 shoeboxes. Ideas to pack your shoebox: small toys, balls, jump ropes, small musical instruments, school supplies, hygiene items (toothbrush, bar soap in plastic bags, comb, washcloth), socks, tee-shirts, hats, gloves, sunglasses.

DO NOT INCLUDE—toothpaste, liquids, medicines, candy of any kind, toys promoting violence.

Use an empty average size shoebox or a shoebox size plastic box. We also ask that you provide $9 for shipping. Decide whether you want to pack your box for a girl or boy and for what age. Fill your boxes and bring them to the church during the week of November 13-20. We ask that you also pray for all the boxes, those who will distribute them, and those who will receive them.

Thanks for your help in advance.

November 2019

Heaven Came Down: Jesus Shows us How To Treat One Another was written by Lynn Anderson. Jesus encountered many diverse people in His time—religious people like the Pharisees, lonely people like the man at the pool, frightened people like the adulterous woman, and mistreated people like the blind beggar—and He treated them all just as He would hope to be treated.

Learn how to treat the people God has put into your world the way Jesus treated the people in His world. Adapt the same principles Jesus followed in handling everyday encounters, and you will be inspired to love like Jesus did, to "love your neighbor (and family and friends) as yourself. You can learn how to be more like Jesus in your heart: available, sensitive, helpful, and creative—as creative as the uniqueness of each person God is pleased to touch through you.

Max Lucado wrote God Came Near. He came, not as a flash of light or as an unapproachable conqueror but as One whose first cries were heard by a peasant girl and a sleepy carpenter. The hands that held Him were un-manicured, calloused, and dirty. Max Lucado views the Savior who walked among us through a distinctly human lens. He speaks plainly to those of us who prefer to keep Jesus distant and predictable : "Don't do it. For heaven's sake, don't. Let Him be as human as He intended to be. Let him into the mire and muck of our world."
