PASTOR'S THOUGHTS COMMITMENT TO SHARE

There are two important parts to the spiritual life which need a strong commitment in our lives. We should share how to accept Jesus Christ as a personal Savior with those who do not know him. Plus, we should share with our sisters and brothers in the community of faith the current concepts God is teaching us. Without these as part of our lives, the whole community (inside and outside the church) lacks a deeper knowledge and understanding of God's will.

God uses us to reach people who have not accepted Jesus Christ as their Savior and Lord. Everyone has their own story about how they came to know Jesus Christ. God can use your story to touch people God brings you in contact with each day. There are people who have followed a similar life as yours and you may have the most impact on them. I am not talking about inviting them to church; I am talking about sitting down with them face-to-face and sharing the very basics of inviting Jesus Christ into their life. If this is something you do not know how to do, please let me know and we can talk about this together. It is important to the continuing of our community that you know how to help people accept Jesus Christ's work for them.

God is always about speaking to us and sharing with us on the spiritual journey. Sometimes what God shares with us can be a great help for someone else or even the community of faith. The tendency of some Christians is to see their walk with God as a very private event that they never talk about. This is not a biblical idea of the spiritual journey. Our learning on our journey with God should be shared with other people because it may help them, encourage them, or inspire them to walk in a deeper way also. Think about it, when was the last time you shared with another Christian the latest concept God shared with you? If it has been a while, you are missing out on one of the greatest and most wonderful parts of Christian fellowship.

Be serious with yourself and evaluate your spiritual life and your commitment to these two tasks. Take the opportunities God supplies to learn how to do them better. Even call your pastor and seek to learn how to do them better so you will influence the people of this world, an effect that has eternal consequences.

Because of God's Love,
Pastor Tim

NOTES FROM OUR INTERIM MUSIC DIRECTOR

This is why it is said:

*“Wake up, sleeper,
rise from the dead,
and Christ will shine on you.”*

Matthew 21:9

EASTER!

The season reminding us of the glorious resurrection of Jesus Christ. “He is Alive!”

Recently I heard the Contemporary Christian song, “Rise Up” by Cain. The words of this song stirred my heart and soul and made me realize that because Jesus lives, we, as believers, have been given the awesome promise of resurrection power. Power to live a Christian life, power to overcome evil, power to RISE UP and tell others about what Jesus has done for all mankind. I began to ask myself have we as Christians become comfortable in our tombs, are we happy just hearing about this promise of power in our life without ever claiming it; or at other times never really realizing the strengths that God has gifted us as believers.

The words echoed in my mind over and over:

“Come on and rise up, take a breath,

You're alive now

Can't you hear the voice of Jesus calling us

Out from the grave like Lazarus

Rise up, rise up, rise up”

We are alive with resurrection power! Like Lazarus, Jesus is calling us from the grave to RISE UP! To worship Him in spirit and truth, to sing God's praises, to RISE UP with boldness and tell of God's mercy and grace to all we come in contact with, and truly become steadfast in the knowledge that we are the sons and daughters of the King, and we are ALIVE in Christ!

Praise the Lord! Let us RISE UP! Let us go out and in boldness telling others! Let us wake up, rise up, and Christ will shine on us. Hallelujah and Amen!

Because Christ Lives,

Jerry

God Bless you for your loving hearts,
Dolores Dove

SPECIAL MISSIONARY SPEAKER APRIL 18

Sunday, April 18, during our 10:30 a.m. worship we will be blessed by our Missionary Speaker. Phil Nelson, originally from East Tennessee, is a graduate of Carson-Newman University. While working as a public accountant in Chattanooga, Phil went on a short-term mission trip with his church. Those two weeks led to two years as an IMB Journeyman missionary, followed by the seminary in Texas, and a career missionary appointment in Asia.

After nearly a decade overseas, Phil was called to a church in TN in 2001 as the Pastor of Missions. In 2008, Phil re-employed with the International Mission Board in a state-side mobilization role. His responsibility and passion as a church mobilizer are to help churches personalize their involvement in missions by resourcing, coaching, and encouraging pastors and leaders toward the fulfillment of the Great Commission and the Great Commandment.

THE LETTER

Dear Friend,

How are you? I just had to send a note to tell you how much I care about you. I saw you yesterday as you were talking with your friends. I waited all day hoping you would want to talk with me too. I gave you a sunset to close your day and a cool breeze to rest- and I waited. You never came. It hurt me - but I still love you because I am your friend.

I saw you sleeping last night and longed to touch your brow so I spilled moonlight upon your face. Again I waited, wanting to rush down so we could talk. I have so many gifts for you! You awoke and rushed off to work. My tears were in the rain.

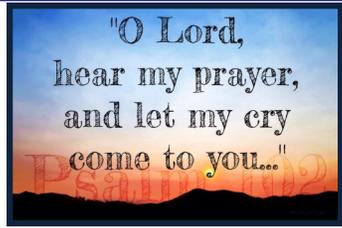

If you would only listen to me! I love you! I try to tell you in blue skies and in the quiet green grass. I whisper it in leaves on the trees and breathe it in colors of flowers, shout it to you in mountain streams, give the birds love songs to sing. I clothe you with warm sunshine and perfume the air with nature scents. My love for you is deeper than the ocean, and bigger than the biggest need in your heart!

Ask me! Talk with me! Please don't forget me. I have so much to share with you! I won't hassle you any further. It is YOUR decision. I have chosen you and I will wait.

I love you. Your friend,
Jesus
